

CULTURE & ARTS 03/21/2012 01:55 pm ET | Updated Dec 06, 2017

Robin Antar: First Female Artist To Exhibit At POP International Galleries

Robin Antar is a no-nonsense sculptor who has recently been named the first female artist to be featured at POP International Galleries in New York. Antar creates “virtual records of contemporary culture.” HuffPost Arts talked to Antar over the phone, and the Brooklyn-raised artist revealed the inspiration behind her large stone sculptures of commonplace items.

Robin Antar, “White Teeth, Fresh Breath,” (carved marble and mixed media). Courtesy of the artist and POP Galleries.